1. Making room for everyone · 14 puan

The Demir family lives in a small flat. Elif needs a quiet place to study, but her brother practises the violin in the living room after dinner. They first argue about the noise. Then they agree that he will practise before dinner and Elif will use the living room afterwards. At weekends, they both use headphones when watching videos.

What caused the conflict? Explain the weekday solution and how it considers both children's needs.

2. Cooking choices · 12 puan

At a school food fair, vegetables cooked above hot water are steamed. Food cooked in hot oil is fried. Food cooked in an oven is baked. Each stall explains its cooking method to visitors.

A visitor asks how three dishes are prepared: vegetables above hot water, potato slices in hot oil, and bread in an oven. Write three full answers using “steamed”, “fried” and “baked” correctly.

3. A future transport proposal · 14 puan

A town is testing small self-driving buses on a fixed route. A trained operator travels on every bus during the trial and can take control if necessary. The buses stop at marked stops; they cannot take each passenger to a private address. The town hopes to reduce short car journeys, but it will study safety and passenger feedback before expanding the service.

Explain one restriction on the bus route and one fact about human supervision during the trial. Does the town plan to expand immediately? Support your answer.

4. A country-day welcome · 12 puan

A new student is helping with a school country-day display. The display needs a welcome text about countries, capitals and languages.

Write three connected sentences for a fictional display. Use “capital”, “language” and “national celebration” correctly, once each. You may use these facts: Türkiye—Ankara—Turkish; students present songs at the celebration.

5. Introduce visiting pupils · 12 puan

Visitors: Aya and Ken / country: Japan / language ability: Japanese and English
Host: Ece / country: Türkiye / language ability: Turkish and English

Write three sentences: introduce Aya and Ken’s country using “they” and the correct form of “be”; state their language abilities using “can”; and state Ece’s language abilities using “can”.
