1. Two work schedules · 18 puan

Lina's mother is a laboratory technician. She starts work at seven, checks samples and finishes at three. Her father works in a hotel reception from three to eleven in the evening. He welcomes guests and answers their questions. On weekdays, Lina has breakfast with her father and dinner with her mother. The family plans a shared lunch on Sundays, when neither parent works.

Explain why Lina has breakfast with her father but dinner with her mother on weekdays. Give one work activity for each parent and state when all three can eat together.

2. A futuristic-film recommendation · 14 puan

A school film club uses these words: "science fiction" for stories about imagined science or future technology; "setting" for where and when a story takes place; "plot" for the main events of a story.

Fictional film: Last Bus to Mars. It takes place on Mars in 2150. A young mechanic repairs a stranded bus so that passengers can reach a shelter before a dust storm.

Write a three-sentence recommendation describing this fictional film. Use "science fiction", "setting" and "plot" correctly, once each.

3. Compare two school profiles · 18 puanSCHOOL OPEN DAY

Cedar Day School: pupils attend lessons from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sports clubs meet twice a week after lessons. New pupils can visit a peer-support desk at lunch.

Lake Boarding School: pupils live on campus during the week. Lessons finish at 3 p.m., and supervised study begins at 5 p.m. Music and gardening clubs meet before dinner. A tutor meets new pupils individually each week.

Both schools invite families to a national-day exhibition next month.

Write the text's main purpose. At what time does supervised study begin at Lake School? Give one similarity and one difference in how the schools support new pupils.

4. An orientation leaflet · 12 puan

For a school leaflet: an extracurricular activity takes place outside regular lessons; a rehearsal prepares a performance; a deadline is the latest time for completing a task.

Write three useful sentences for new pupils. Use “extracurricular activity”, “rehearsal” and “deadline” in contexts that make their meanings clear.
